HEBER CITY, WA

Heber Couple To Celebrate Fiftieth

Aniversary

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Johnson of Heber-City will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary March 19th, with a family dinner and open house.

They were married March 22, 1900 at Mrs. Johnson's home in Daniel Creek, Wasatch County by Abram Hatch. They were married later in the Salt Lake Temple on September 24, 1920.

Mr. Johnson was born in Peoa, Summit County, June 26, 1870. a son of Ola and Marna Walters Johnson.

Mrs. Johnson was born March 9, 1877 at Mt. Pleasant, Sanpete County, a daughter of Mark and Rachel Smith Orgill.

Mr. Johnson has been a miller for the past 60 years in Wanship and Heber. He served as chair, man of the amusement board in Midway and also served one term as County Commissioner. He was a member of the Boy Scout Court of Honor and awarded the first eighty one badges given Scouts in the county.

Mrs. Johnson has been an active church member serving as a Relief Society teacher for many years. She was head of the teachers committee, and class leader for their social service classes. She was made president of the Midway 1st Ward Relief Society, Jan. 19, 1927 and served eight years.

They are the parents of eight children: Mrs. Eclis Edwards, Salt Lake City; George W. Johnson, Midway; Ronald M. Johnson, Heber; Mrs. W. W. Newby, Salt Lake City; Mrs. Mead Whiting, Springville, Mrs. William Larsen, Midway; Ralph J. Johnson, Long Beach, California; Mrs. Clifford Sherwood, Bountiful. They have twenty-five granid-child.

Open house will be held March 16th at their home in Midway from 2 to 6 p. m. All their friends and relatives are invited and it is requested that the guests bring not gifts. years between

She ran this mill for several

She was really the first business

Woman in Heber Utah - as President and manager of Hober City Mills

WILLIAM L. TURNER

Heber City Mills

Come on, come on, with your golden

And take our good flour home again;

The bread will be as white as snow,

And taste much better, that you know. But if you want a sweet brown bread,

Why buy the whole wheat flour instead

The family flour makes that you know.

We'll treat you right, and with your

We'll run the old mill day and night.

The birds still sing around the mill;

Oh yes, it hums in a cheerful way;

I'll ne'er forget that sound, Oh say,

I see the ducks-I sit and wait,

I think he'd like to see the mill

The water running down the hill,

Through the flume, into the rill,-

Forever singing in sweet refrain-

Come on, come on with your golden

Remember always, We'll treat you fair

there. HEBER CITY MILLS.

Jane Hatch Turner, Pres. & Mgr.

wife to Win L Turner

The mill is running and the miller's

But father isn't at the gate!

Go on forever-never still,

grain.

And if you want a golden glow,

I'm thankful that it sin't still.

grain.

mite

William L. Turner was born to John and Agnes Montgomery Turner on July 31, 1866, at Heber, Utah.

He had been connected with various business interests of the city—in the lumber business with his father and brothers, furnishing much of the timber used in the Park City mines, and built and operated an amusement and dance hall.

His father owned a general drygoods store at Main and Second North, and Will served there.

He was a bookkeeper and later manager of A. Hatch & Co. co-op store. He also served as a director and cashier of the Bank of Heber City several years.

Mr. Turner was interested in farming and cattle raising.

JANE HATCH TURNER

Emma Jane Hatch was born to Abram and Permelia Lott Hatch on February 6, 1869, at Heber, Utah.

She received her education in Heber City

BEAUTIFUL UPON THE MOUNTAINS

schools and had a year at the University of Deseret in Salt Lake City. Utah.

On January 1, 1890, she married William L. Turner and to them seven children were born: Lacy T. Dannenberg, Abram W. Turner, Florence T. Balaska, Ruth T. Smith, Joseph Turner, Josie T. Wetmore and Darrow Hill Turner.

Mrs. Turner was prominently identified with business and civic affairs throughout the state, holding various offices in the state Republican organizations many years. She had been president and manager of Heber Mills 10 years.

One of the organizers of the Daughters of Utah Pioneers in Wasatch County, she was the first president of the camp, serving several years. She was well known as a writer and public speaker and many poems and articles by her have been published.

WILLIAM L. TURNER

William L. Turner was born to John and Agnes Montgomery Turner on July 31, 1866, at Helser, Utah.

He had been connected with various business interests of the city in the lumber lusiness with his father and brothers, furnishing much of the timber used in the lark City mines, and built and operated an anuscement and dance half.

His father owned a general strygoods store at Main and Second North, and Will sorved there.

He was a bookkeeper and later manager of A. Hatch & Co. co-op store. He also served as a director and cashier of the Bank of Heber City several years.

Mr. Turner was interested in formula

JANE HATCH TURNER

Ruma Jane Hatch was born to Abram and Permelia Lott Hatch on February 9, 1869, at Heber, Utah.

She received her education in Heber City

BEAUTIFUL UPON THE MOUNTAINS

schools one but a year at the University of Deseret a Salt Lake City, Unit

On James 1890, she may d Wilham L. Tomer and for them seven children were boint L., v. T. Dannet ben Abram W. Turner, Florince T. Balaska Ruth T. Smeth Tesch. Turner, Josie T. Wetmere and Danser, 16th Turner, .

Mrs. Theser was prominently identified with business and civil affairs if suchant the state. Add is various offices in the state Republican organizations in its years. She had been president and in ager of Heber Mids to sears.

One of the exprisers of the engineers of Hah Proposes in Wasatch Cv ev, she was the first provident of the camp serving several years. She was well known as a writer and judice speaker and many prems and area in by her have been published.

WILLIAM L. TURNER

William L. Turner was born to John and Agnes Montgomery Turner on July 31, 1866, at Heber, Utah.

He had been connected with various business interests of the city—in the lumber business with his father and brothers, furnishing much of the timber used in the Park City mines, and built and operated an amusement and dance hall.

His father owned a general drygoods store at Main and Second North, and Will served there.

He was a bookkeeper and later manager of A. Hatch & Co. co-op store. He also served as a director and cashier of the Bank of Heber City several years.

Mr. Turner was interested in farming and cattle raising. 496

JANE HATCH TURNER

Emma Jane Hatch was born to Abram and Permelia Lott Hatch on February 6, 1869, at Heber, Utah.

She received her education in Heber City

BEAUTIFUL UPON THE MOUNTAINS

schools and had a year at the University of Deseret in Salt Lake City, Utah.

On January 1, 1890, she married William L. Turner and to them seven children were born: Lacy T. Dannenberg, Abram W. Turner, Florence T. Balaska, Ruth T. Smith, Joseph Turner, Josie T. Wetmore and Darrow Hill Turner.

Mrs. Turner was prominently identified with business and civic affairs throughout the state, holding various offices in the state Republican organizations many years. She had been president and manager of Heber Mills 10 years.

One of the organizers of the Daughters of Utah Pioneers in Wasatch County, she was the first president of the camp, serving several years. She was well known as a writer and public speaker and many poems and articles by her have been published.

Noun L. Jane Hatch
Ran Mill (flow)

Ray — no will work.

Aged aknow to Marie Roylance

3 p Bort

Doyle Escondido

Lacle

Assas Jan